Asked on Wednesday, 10 May 2006

MR MCARDLE MP asked the Minister for Communities, Disability Services and Seniors (MR PITT) -

For the financial years 2004-05 and 2005-06, each reported separately, will he provide details of support grants to organisations assisting victims of domestic violence, including the name of the organisation and amount of grant?

ANSWER:

In the 2004-05 financial year, 130 organisations totalling $26M were funded by the Department of Communities to assist victims of domestic violence. In the 2005-06 financial year 143 organisations were funded to an amount of $28.4M.

In addition to the wide range of services for women and children affected by domestic and family violence, the department has committed $3.75M over four years 2004-08 for the enhancement of services to assist perpetrators in changing their abusive behaviour.
