Asked on 20 February 2007

Ms Palaszczuk asked the Minister for Education and Training and Minister for the Arts (Mr Welford) —

QUESTION:

What programs/courses are currently operating from the Inala TAFE and what plans are there for further expansion of programs and courses in 2007–08?

ANSWER:

Courses available at the Inala campus of the Bremer Institute of TAFE are as follows:

Course in General Safety Induction (Construction Industry)
Certificate IV in TESOL: Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages
Course in Volunteer Tutoring in English as a Second Language in a One-on-One Environment
Course in Skills for the Future
Certificate I in Workplace Access
Courses in Vocational Literacy 1, 2 and 3
Course in Vocational Numeracy 1, 2 and 3
Courses in Pre-training Assessment - Vocational Literacy and Vocational Numeracy
Certificate II in Access 10 (year 10 alternative)
Course in Preliminary Spoken and Written English
Certificate I, II and III in Spoken and Written English
Certificate IV in Spoken and Written English - Jobseeking
Certificate II in Business
Certificate III and IV in Business Administration
Diploma of Business Administration
Certificate III in Children's Services.

The Bremer Institute currently has no plans for expansion into other programs at the Inala Campus in 2007/08 due to the high demand for the existing programs on offer.

Further research will be carried out as part of the institute's business planning activities to identify ongoing community needs.
