

Question on Notice
No. 234
Asked on 22 February 2007

MR MALONE asked the Minister for Emergency Services (MR PURCELL) -

QUESTION:

For 2005-06 and 2006-07 (year to date), will he provide details of all Department of Emergency Services advertising campaigns, market research projects, communications programs and initiatives, on-line marketing and communications initiatives, and marketing and promotional material (referred to below as initiatives) broken down by (a) the name of the initiatives, (b) media publications in which the initiatives appear (if applicable), (c) dates when the initiatives were implemented and appeared in the media (if applicable) and (d) total cost of the initiative including production costs, consultant/contractor costs, media placement costs and distribution costs?

ANSWER:

The Member will appreciate the day to day work of the Department of Emergency Services includes providing core services, recruiting staff, procurement activity and placing tender advertisements for major projects. In addition, a vast range of information is provided to members of the public and key stakeholders of the Department of Emergency Services through a wide array of methods and channels such as publications, phone, web, email and traditional media.

In keeping with the precedent established in answers to Questions on Notice numbers 174, 428, 429, 1097 and 1472 of 1997 and 77 of 1998 by Coalition Government Ministers: the Honourable Bob Quinn MP, the Honourable Howard Hobbs MP, the Honourable Russell Cooper MP and the Honourable Michael Vievers MP, it is not practical, nor would it be reasonable to divert the resources of the Department of Emergency Services to identify every single marketing, promotional or public information material. If the member cares to ask for the costs of specific promotional and advertising campaigns, I would be more than happy to provide the information. However, I have previously provided to the Parliament specific details of some campaigns.

The total figures for 2006-07 will be made available in the Department of Emergency Services annual report which will be tabled in the House. The total figures for 2005-06 are available in the 2005-06 annual report of the Department of Emergency Services which was tabled last year.
