Asked on 7 March 2007

MR HORAN asked the Minister for State Development, Employment and Industrial Relations (MR MICKEL) —

QUESTION:

With reference to the Premier's announcement on 26 July 2006 of the creation of a Clean Coal Technology Board whose membership included the former Co-ordinator General Ross Rolfe and the current Water Commissioner Elizabeth Nosworthy and as the functions of the board were specific and seven months have transpired —

Will he table the clean coal technology business plan and management strategy developed by the board and will he detail the facilities and corresponding funding strategies the board have identified that need to be constructed as well as the timelines for construction?

ANSWER:

The portfolio responsibility for this matter lies with the Honourable Deputy Premier, Treasurer and Minister for Infrastructure. The Member should direct his question to the Deputy Premier.
