MR LINGARD MP asked the Minister for Communities, Minister for Disability Services Queensland, Minister for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships, Minister for Seniors and Youth (MR PITT) -

With reference to State-run indigenous aged care facilities—

- (1) How many facilities operate throughout Queensland?
- (2) Where are those facilities located?
- (3) What is the full-time equivalent nursing staff-to-client ratio for each of these facilities?

ANSWER:

I thank the Honourable Member for Beaudesert for his Question on Notice No. 318.

As the responsibility for aged care facilities run by the government throughout Queensland now lies within the portfolio of the Honourable Stephen Robertson MP, Minister for Health, it is suggested that the Member may wish to redirect his question accordingly.
