

QUESTION ON NOTICE
No. 377
Asked on Thursday, 8 March 2007

MR WELLINGTON asked the Minister for Primary Industries and Fisheries (MR MULHERIN)-

QUESTION:

How many permanent, part-time and casual staff are currently employed at the Nambour Research Station and how do these figures compare with the same time last year?

ANSWER:

In February 2006 there were 57 staff employed at the Maroochy Research Station, Nambour. In February 2007 there were 59 staff employed.