

QUESTION ON NOTICE

No. 551

asked on Tuesday, 17 April 2007

---

DR FLEGG ASKED THE MINISTER FOR MINES AND ENERGY (MR WILSON)—

QUESTION:

With reference to the recent sale of Powerdirect to AGL –

- (1) How many jobs will be lost from Queensland as a result of the sale?
- (2) Were any agreements tied to the sale to guarantee that jobs currently based in Queensland would not be lost?

ANSWER:

I thank the Member for his question.

However, the sale of the electricity retail entities fell under the jurisdiction of the Deputy Premier, Treasurer and Minister for Infrastructure. The Member should address his question accordingly.