No. 610

Asked on Wednesday, 18 April 2007

MR JOHNSON MP asked the Minister for Communities, Minister for Disability Services Queensland, Minister for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships, Minister for Seniors and Youth (MR PITT)–

With reference to the employment of Aboriginal people under the Community Development and Employment Programme –

For the years 2004-05, 2005-06 and 2006-07 (year to date), how many Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are currently being employed by State Government departments as subsidised workers through the Federal Government's Community Development and Employment Programme?

ANSWER:

As the responsibility for the Federal Government's Community Development and Employment Projects program lies with the Australian Government, The Department of Employment and Workplace Relations, the Member may wish to redirect his question accordingly, to the Honourable, Joe Hockey MP.
