Mr Hayward asked the Minister for Police and Corrective Services (MS SPENCE) -

QUESTION:

With reference to the recent purchase of land for the new Burpengary Police Station –
What is the time frame for the station to become operational?

ANSWER:

Project Services, Department of Public Works have been engaged to design, document and project manage the delivery of the new Burpengary Police Station and District Functions project.

Preliminary planning has commenced. The Department of Public Works advises that tenders may be called in October 2007, with construction to commence mid-January 2008. It is expected that construction will be completed by December 2008.

The building of the new Burpengary Police Station, together with new district headquarters at Caboolture represents an $11.5 million investment in policing in the area by the Beattie Government.
