No. 824

Asked on Tuesday, 5 June 2007

MR JOHNSON MP asked the Minister for Communities, Minister for Disability Services Queensland, Minister for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships, Minister for Seniors and Youth (MR PITT)–

With reference to Department of Communities grants–

- (1) How many grants have been granted to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island communities and organisations so far in 2006-07?
- (2) What is the total dollar amount and the purpose of these grants (reported separately detailing the name of the community/organisation, how much they received and the purpose of the grant)?

ANSWER:

To date in 2006-07, $20 719,333 of triennial funding and $8,932,861 in one-off funds has been provided by the department to 216 organisations for the provision of 357 services targeting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

The attached table (Attachment A) provides details of expenditure to date in 2006-07 to organisations targeting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people including the name of community/organisation, amount of grant provided and the purpose of each grant.
