

Question on Notice

No. 1597

Asked on Thursday 30 October 2008

MR RICKUSS ASKED THE MINISTER FOR TRANSPORT, TRADE, EMPLOYMENT AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS (MR MICKEL) —

QUESTION:

How many P plate drivers have been charged for having too many occupants in the vehicle after 10.00 pm since the introduction of the new driver licensing regime?

ANSWER:

I am advised there have been 917 infringements entered into the register for P plate drivers being charged for having too many occupants in their vehicle between the hours of 11.00 pm and 5.00 am since the introduction of the Young Drivers' initiative.