No. 1717

Asked on Wednesday 12 November 2008

MISS SIMPSON ASKED THE MINISTER FOR TRANSPORT, TRADE, EMPLOYMENT AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS (MR MICKEL) —

QUESTION:

With reference to the Cooroy to Curra section of the Bruce Highway which has endured 49 deaths since 2000 and countless other accidents with injury and property damage (evidence of a failed road)—

How often are speed cameras and mobile patrols commissioned for this section of the Bruce Highway and what events trigger the deployment of those resources?

ANSWER:

The Honourable Member should direct her question to the Honourable Judy Spence MP, Minister for Police, Corrective Services and Sport.
