

Question on Notice
No. 1752
Asked on 13 November 2008

MR O'BRIEN asked the Minister for Health (MR ROBERTSON)—

QUESTION:

Does the Department of Health have any plans to build a primary health care centre on Hammond Island in the Torres Strait?

ANSWER:

The Torres Strait and Northern Peninsula Health Service District is in the process of developing a service plan which will include a new Primary Health Care Centre on Hammond Island.