

Question on Notice

No. 635

Asked on 29 April 2008

MR McARDLE ASKED THE TREASURER (MR FRASER)—

What legal fees and outlays were paid by the Government to legal firms (each firm reported separately) in 2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08 to date (reported separately)?

ANSWER:

Treasury does not maintain records of legal fees across Government. Whole of Government responsibility in this area rests with the Attorney-General.

I would be pleased to provide this information for the Department of Treasury should that information be required.
