

Question on Notice
No. 1278
Asked on Wednesday 16 September 2009

MR MALONE asked the Minister for Emergency Services (MR ROBERTS) -

QUESTION:

How many Queensland Ambulance officers are currently working on the four day on, four day off roster promised by the Labor Government after the December 2007 audit (reported by ambulance region)?

ANSWER:

The four days on followed by four days off roster has been introduced at all Queensland Ambulance Service stations and communication centres for rosters which operate on a 24 hour basis.

Regional breakdown:

Northern 138 staff; Central 179; South Western 94; North Coast 300;
Brisbane 495; South East 429; Far Northern 128.
Total 1763