MR RICKUSS ASKED THE MINISTER FOR TRANSPORT (MS NOLAN)—

QUESTION:

With reference to the Southern Freight Rail Corridor land resumption process—
Is there any limitation as to how many times a landholder can make application for hardship having previously rejected the department's hardship offer?

ANSWER:

I thank the Member for Lockyer for the question.

It is acknowledged that landowners' circumstances may change over time and as such there is no limitation which prevents them from re-applying for a hardship purchase.
