Asked on 16 June 2011

Ms Bates asked the Minister for Government Services, Building Industry and Information and Communication Technology (MR FINN)-

QUESTION:

Will the Minister explain how the hospital rostering and payroll service is currently operating, given that the software has not yet been repaired, including how many hospital payroll staff have been employed to date to manually compensate for the inadequacies of the failed system, and advise if these costs have been included in the total cost announced to fix the system?

ANSWER:

Queensland Health is the responsible agency for the matters raised by the Member.
