No. 1015

Asked on Thursday, 16 June 2011

MR RICKUSS asked the Minister for Transport and Multicultural Affairs (MS PALASZCZUK)—

QUESTION:

Will the Minister advise on the implementation status of each recommendation of the parliamentary Travelsafe Committee's Report No. 47, June 2007: Report on the inquiry into Q-RIDE?

ANSWER:

I thank the Member for Lockyer for the question.

The Parliamentary Travelsafe Committee ceased operation in 2009. This was the last time the Department of Transport and Main Roads formally responded to the recommendations raised in the report on the inquiry into Q-Ride. The department continues to report on any road safety initiatives developed as a result of Travelsafe's recommendations in the department's annual report.

Recommendations 2, 6, 11, 13, 14, 17, 18, 19, 23 and 24 have been fully or partially implemented.

Recommendations 3, 4, 7, 9 and 22 are currently being investigated.

Recommendations 1, 5, 8, 10, 12, 15, 16, 20 and 21 are not supported and no further action is being taken.
