No. 780

Asked on 24 May 2011

MR DEMPSEY asked the Minister for Disability Services, Mental Health and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships (MR PITT)—

QUESTION

Considering the high percentage of persons with disabilities in Bundaberg, will the Minister advise the disability budget for each electorate (including Bundaberg) for 2010–11?

ANSWER

The Department of Communities has advised me the department is not able to provide disability budget information by electorate.

While funding shown against each electorate is the amount expended by non-government service providers that have a principal address in that electorate, some funds may be spent outside the electorate.

Expenditure by Home and Community Care for disability services is not separated at the electorate level and cannot be reported on.

The following shows all disability services grants expenditure by electorate for 2010–11 (to 30 April).
