No. 925

Asked on 14 June 2011

MS DAVIS asked the Minister for Disability Services, Mental Health and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships (MR PITT) —

QUESTION

Will the Minister advise (a) all capital projects for mental health that were originally budgeted under the 2009–10 $8.3m allocation, including locations of projects, (b) what projects were dropped to bring the project cost down to $6.8m in 2010–11 and (c) what projects were not completed as a result of the $1.5m underspend in 2009–10?

ANSWER

(a) A total of $8.3 million was allocated to purchase properties to provide the Transitional Recovery Program and Consumer Operated Services in the Logan, Mt Gravatt, Caboolture, Burpengary, Sunshine Coast, Nambour and Wide Bay areas. Of this amount, $1.5 million was converted through an equity-to-output transfer and was provided to Social Ventures Australia.

(b) There were no properties that were dropped from this list.

(c) There were no projects that were not completed.
