MR BYRNE asked the Attorney-General and Minister for Justice (MR BLEIJIE)—

QUESTION:

Will the Attorney-General provide a list of the number of court-ordered parole orders made in the Brisbane District Court in March 2013 quarter by offence?

In the Brisbane District Court, in the March 2013 quarter, there were 112 offenders charged with 497 offences who were sentenced to a period of imprisonment with court-ordered parole. Of these, 80 defendants had a parole release date specified and 32 had a parole eligibility date specified.

Notes:

1. 'Court-ordered parole' orders are 'parole release date specified' and 'parole eligibility date specified'.
2. The March 2013 quarter is for the period 1 January 2013 to 31 March 2013.
3. The QWIC system is a "live" operational system in which records are updated as the status of court matters change (for example, a defendant being resentenced as a result of a Court of Appeal decision) and or input errors are detected and rectified. This constant updating and data verification may result in a slight variance of figures over time.
