MR DRISCOLL asked the Minister for Health (MR SPRINGBORG)-

QUESTION:

Will the Minister advise when the promised review of the visitors car park issues at the Redcliffe Hospital will be forthcoming from Queensland Health, given it had been promised to be delivered in March 2013, and open for public scrutiny?

ANSWER:

I thank the Honourable Member for Redcliffe for his question.

I am aware that car parking at some hospitals, including Redcliffe Hospital, is constrained and is a source of frustration for staff, patients and visitors. As a result, the Department of Health has undertaken a review of hospital car parking issues across the State with the aim to identify critical demand pressures and options to address these pressures.

The Government is currently considering the outcomes of the review and will announce its decision in the near future.
