Question on Notice No. 587 Asked on 7 August 2014

MR BYRNE asked the Minister for Police, Fire and Emergency Services (MR DEMPSEY)—

QUESTION:

Will the Minister provide the number of 'not substantiated' and 'unfounded' crime reports for 2012-13 and 2013-14, broken down by police district and crime type as represented by the categories currently listed on the MyPolice website?

ANSWER:

The Queensland Government is committed to reducing crime and making Queensland the safest place to live, work and raise a family. That is why the Government is delivering on our strong plan to revitalise frontline policing by providing an additional 1,100 officers over four years.

To date, the Government has delivered well over 800 additional officers who have been allocated throughout the State to areas of critical need. This increase in frontline police is enabling the Queensland Police Service (QPS) to commit more officers to proactive policing tasks, assisting to drive down crime across the State.

Attached is a list of crime reported to the QPS that were deemed to be unfounded (not substantiated) during the 2012-13 and 2013-14 financial year periods. This information is provided by district and crime type.

An offence is 'unfounded' (or 'not substantiated') when no crime has been committed or no crime has occurred. As such, 'unfounded' reports are not included in reported crime figures.

It should be noted that the attached data is not official QPS data as it is outside the bounds of what is published in official QPS Documents or websites including the MyPolice and Open Data sites. The data is also preliminary and may be subject to change.
