MR STEVENS ASKED THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL AND MINISTER FOR JUSTICE AND MINISTER FOR TRAINING AND SKILLS (HON Y D'ATH) –

QUESTION:

Will the Attorney-General advise whether the government is considering implementing a Custody Notification Service to help reduce Indigenous deaths in custody?

ANSWER:

I thank the Member for Mermaid Beach for his question.

As the issues you have raised in relation to whether the government is considering implementing a Custody Notification Service to help reduce Indigenous deaths in custody, falls within the ministerial responsibility of the Honourable Bill Byrne MP, Minister for Police, Fire and Emergency Services and Minister for Corrective Services, please direct your question to Minister Byrne for response.
