MR DICKSON ASKED THE MINISTER FOR HOUSING AND PUBLIC WORKS (HON M DE BRENNI) —

Will the Minister advise why, with the most vulnerable in our community investing their life savings to reside in a retirement village villa, upon having to enter a nursing home, are left with little more than 20% of their initial investment as a result of excessive deductions made via village owners' 'exit fees', which include items such as valuation costs, cost of sale, legal fees and reinstatement costs, as well as other items such as outstanding general and personal service charges?
