MRS J STUCKEY ASKED MINISTER FOR EDUCATION AND MINISTER FOR INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS (HON G GRACE)

QUESTION:

With reference to New South Wales (NSW) residents attending schools located in Queensland—

Will the Minister advise the (a) total number of NSW students attending schools in Queensland (broken down by school) and (b) total cost of NSW students attending schools in Queensland (broken down by school)?

ANSWER:

There are a total of 938 Queensland state school students as at the February Enrolment Collection 2018, who have a reported residential address in New South Wales (NSW).

Attachment 1 provides the student count broken down by school.

The average cost per student in Queensland state schools in 2017–18 is as follows:

- primary school: $13,387
- secondary school: $14,467
- students with disability: $29,092
