

Question on Notice

No. 550

Asked on 4 April 2019

MR J COSTIGAN ASKED DEPUTY PREMIER, TREASURER AND MINISTER FOR ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER PARTNERSHIPS (HON J TRAD)—

QUESTION:

Will the Treasurer explain why it took more than two years after Cyclone Debbie for the Palaszczuk Labor Government to give $5m to the Whitsunday Regional Council for the construction of a new council chambers in Proserpine?

ANSWER:

The Queensland Reconstruction Authority leads the coordination and financial administration of disaster recovery in Queensland. I therefore refer the Member to my colleague, the Honourable Cameron Dick MP, Minister for State Development, Manufacturing, Infrastructure and Planning.