Asked on Tuesday, 12 September 2023

MRS D FRECKLINGTON ASKED THE MINISTER FOR HOUSING (HON M SCANLON)—

QUESTION:

With reference to vacant land (land without a dwelling) managed by the department—

Will the Minister provide information, as at 1 July 2023, about how many vacant blocks are managed by the department (within the Nanango Electorate borders) in the regions of (a) South Burnett Regional Council area, (b) western Gympie Council area, (c) Somerset Regional Council and (d) northern Toowoomba Council area?

ANSWER:

As at 1 July 2023, the Department of Housing owned and managed 19 vacant land sites within the Nanango State Electorate border: 15 in the South Burnett Regional Council area and four in the Western Gympie Council area.

There are no department owned or managed vacant land sites in the Somerset Regional Council and Northern Toowoomba Council areas.
