MR B MICKELBERG ASKED MINISTER FOR EDUCATION, MINISTER FOR INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS AND MINISTER FOR RACING (HON G GRACE)

QUESTION:

With reference to school-based VET training in Aurukun State School, Western Cape College and Northern Peninsula Area State College—

Will the Minister provide (reported separately by school and year) from 2018 to current (a) the number of students participating in VET courses and (b) the number of completions, noting what courses have been completed?

ANSWER:

The data below represents the number of students at Aurukun State School, Western Cape College and Northern Peninsula Area State College participating in one or more VET courses in the reference year, whether delivered by the school or an external registered training organisation (RTO); the number of completed qualifications; and the name of courses completed, all for the period requested.

Data for 2023 will be available following certification on 15 December 2023. Numbers are based on data provided by the Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority.

In relation to part (a), the numbers of students who participated in VET for years 2018 to 2022 are detailed below:
