

Question on Notice

No. 1460

Asked on 15 November 2023

MR B MICKELBERG ASKED MINISTER FOR HEALTH, MENTAL HEALTH AND AMBULANCE SERVICES AND MINISTER FOR WOMEN (HON S FENTIMAN)—

QUESTION

Will the Minister advise the number of apprentices and trainees directly employed by Queensland Health as at the latest Queensland Public Sector workforce profile figures on 31 March 2023 (reported separately by vocational qualification)?

ANSWER

As at 31 March 2023, Queensland Health had 64 (headcount) apprentices and trainees across a range of vocational qualifications, including:

- 20 Electricians
- 7 Plumbers
- 4 Fitters
- 3 Carpenters
- 3 Painters
- 1 Welder
- 15 Aged or Disability Carers
- 1 Nursing Support Worker
- 1 Pharmacy Assistant
- 2 Therapy Aides
- 3 Dental Assistants
- 4 Clerical staff

In addition, Queensland Health had 7,684 (headcount) trainee nurses and doctors as at 31 March 2023, including:

- 3,408 Medical Registrars
- 2,988 House Officers
- 848 Interns
- 440 Nursing