Asked on 19 March 2024

MR M CRANDON ASKED MINISTER FOR TRANSPORT AND MAIN ROADS AND MINISTER FOR DIGITAL SERVICES (HON B MELLISH)—

QUESTION:

With reference to the government's announcement dated 20 April 2023 regarding the Backing Queensland Marine Jobs Program—

Will the Minister advise (a) the names of all organisations that received a grant (excluding those who are yet to enter formal agreements) and (b) the criteria(s) used to evaluate the grant applications?

ANSWER:

I thank the Member for Coomera for the question.

As per the announcements on 20 April 2023, more than 40 grants have been awarded under the Backing Queensland Maritime Jobs initiative, under three separate grant programs: the Coastal Shipping Grant Program, Maritime Employment Grant Program and Maritime Training Grant Program.

- (a) The Department of Transport and Main Roads' Maritime Safety Queensland have published the names of all organisations which received a grant and are available online at <https://www.msq.qld.gov.au/about-us/maritime-jobs>
- (b) All criterion used to evaluate grant applications were published in the guidelines when applications opened and remain available online at <https://www.msq.qld.gov.au/about-us/maritime-jobs>
