MS J PEASE ASKED MINISTER FOR CUSTOMER SERVICES AND OPEN DATA AND MINISTER FOR SMALL AND FAMILY BUSINESS (HON S MINNIKIN)

With reference to reports that approximately 17,000 motorists in Queensland may have renewed their driver licences without providing the required medical clearance—

Will the Minister advise (a) the number of motorists that have been contacted by the Queensland Government to request an updated medical certificate, (b) how many of these motorists have submitted a valid medical certificate to date and (c) how many licences have been suspended or cancelled because of non-compliance?
