MS B ASIF asked the Minister for Families, Seniors and Disability Services and Minister for Child Safety and the Prevention of Domestic and Family Violence (HON A CAMM)—

QUESTION

With reference to the Bangle Foundation, which supports women from South Asian backgrounds impacted by domestic and family violence—

Will the Minister advise (a) whether the Bangle Foundation will receive any funding under any measure or line item contained within Budget Papers 3 or 4, (b) if yes, how much, and which measure, line item or funding pool does it fall under and (c) if not, why not?

ANSWER

The Department of Families, Seniors, Disability Services and Child Safety acknowledges the critical role the Bangle Foundation (the Foundation) plays in supporting South Asian women impacted by domestic, family and sexual violence (DFSV) and remains committed to working collaboratively with the Foundation to address these challenges.

The Foundation does not receive funding under any measure or line item contained within Budget Papers 3 or 4. However, in 2025-26, we are providing $130,000 grant to the Foundation as a contribution to the Foundation's activities.

This funding is sourced from the department's core funding for frontline outsourced service delivery for DFSV.
