HON C DICK ASKED MINISTER FOR HOUSING AND PUBLIC WORKS AND MINISTER FOR YOUTH

With reference to the 8,224 social housing applications cancelled in 2025–26, including 4,481 applications cancelled because the applicant was either no longer eligible for social housing or did not provide evidence of eligibility—

Will the Minister advise how many applications were cancelled because the applicant (a) was determined to be no longer eligible for social housing and (b) did not provide sufficient evidence to demonstrate their eligibility?
