MS C MCMILLAN ASKED MINISTER FOR FAMILIES, SENIORS AND DISABILITY SERVICES AND MINISTER FOR CHILD SAFETY AND THE PREVENTION OF DOMESTIC AND FAMILY VIOLENCE (HON A CAMM)

With reference to DV Connect Womensline—

Will the Minister confirm (a) that women and children escaping domestic and family violence today can access emergency transport and accommodation, to and from anywhere in Queensland, (b) the number of shelters funded and funded accommodation places per night (reported separately by accommodation places per shelter) in (i) 2025-26, (ii) 2026-27 and (iii) across the Forward Estimates and (c) how many persons calling the Womensline are being advised that there is no immediate accommodation available and to instead call the Homeless Hotline or contact their local Housing Service Centre?
