- 316 MS W BOURNE ASKED MINISTER FOR POLICE AND EMERGENCY SERVICES (HON D PURDIE)
With reference to the reported disestablishment of the Domestic and Family Violence and Vulnerable Persons Command Operational Support Unit (Unit) within the Queensland Police Service—
Will the Minister advise for the Ipswich Police District (a) the total number of police officer FTE that were in the now disestablished Unit available to support the Ipswich Police District, (b) the number, if any, of the police officer FTE positions from that Unit that will be re-assigned to the Ipswich Police District and (c) will those FTE be filled from existing experienced personnel from the disestablished Unit, or will the positions be re-advertised for new applicants, without requiring prior specialist domestic and family violence experience?
