No. 445

Asked on Thursday 23 April 2026

MS C MCMILLAN asked the Minister for Families, Seniors and Disability Services and Minister for Child Safety and the Prevention of Domestic and Family Violence (HON A CAMM)—

QUESTION

Will the Minister advise if the Crisafulli Government will develop a whole of government Families Strategy that includes targeted responses for families doing it tough particularly across the key domains of housing, health, and education?

ANSWER

After a decade of decline, the Crisafulli Government is delivering a fresh start for Queensland with health services when you need them, a better lifestyle through a stronger economy and a plan for Queensland's future.

Many Queensland families are struggling under significant cost-of-living pressures.

The Crisafulli Government is committed to driving down cost of living for Queenslanders, improving access to essential services including health, housing and education and ensuring the ongoing health and safety of children and families in Queensland.
