Asked on 13 May 2026

HON M RYAN ASKED MINISTER FOR POLICE AND EMERGENCY SERVICES (HON D PURDIE)—

QUESTION:

With reference to watch houses, for each month since January 2025 to date (reported separately in table format)—

Will the Minister advise (a) the capacity of each watch house in Queensland, (b) the monthly total occupancy of those held in custody in each watch house, (c) the average daily occupancy of those held in custody in each watch house for each month, (d) the monthly total medical incidences for each watch house, (e) the number of sworn and unsworn positions for each watch house, (f) the number of sworn and unsworn personnel for each watch house and (g) the number of sworn and unsworn vacancies for each watch house?

ANSWER:

I am advised by the Queensland Police Service (QPS) that:

(a)–(c) the capacity of each watchhouse in Queensland, the monthly total occupancy of those held in custody in each watchhouse, and the average daily occupancy of those held in custody in each watchhouse for each month for each watchhouse, for the period 1 January 2025 to 14 May 2026 are detailed in the table below:

Note:

1. Maximum number of available beds based on the designed build capacity of the watch house.
2. Total number of unique persons who were in custody at the watch house at any point within the specified month. Each person is counted once per month, regardless of custody duration or multiple custody events within that month.
3. Average number of persons in custody at the watch house on each day within the specified month. Calculated as the sum of daily custody counts divided by the number of days in the month.

(d) I am further advised that watchhouse medical related records includes all medical related interactions, ranging from initial assessments, administering of prescription medication, basic first aid to critical incidents causing serious injury. To identify a specific type of medical interaction would require a manual examination of a large number of records. This is considered by the QPS to be an unjustifiable use of police resources at this time.

(e)–(g) for multiple reasons the QPS is unable to release detailed staffing and vacancy information for each watchhouse. The release of operational policing information has the potential to compromise officer and community safety, as it means this information is in the public domain. This information could be used inappropriately to inform unlawful activity.
