Note:

- Behaviour incidents are sourced directly from OneSchool.
- Behaviour incident count is the number of incidents recorded by school staff. Incidents may involve one or more students. On occasions, an individual incident may be recorded separately by multiple staff.
- The classification of a behaviour as minor or major depends on locally agreed descriptors in each school, developed in consultation with staff.
- Minor incidents are generally low-level behaviours managed in the classroom.
- Combined schools (Combined Primary and Secondary) are schools where they are either Early Childhood to Yr 10, Early Childhood to Yr 12, P-10 or P-12/ Education and Training Centres are also included, e.g. Cleveland Education and Training centre is a Year 5 to Year 12.
