Answer Due: Monday, 15 June 2026

- 550 MR L MCCALLUM ASKED DEPUTY PREMIER, MINISTER FOR STATE DEVELOPMENT, INFRASTRUCTURE AND PLANNING AND MINISTER FOR INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS (HON J BLEIJIE)
- With reference the Housing Summit, following which the former Labor Government committed to investigate mechanisms to preserve ongoing affordability of housing stock through land titling mechanisms, and noting advice from the former Department of Resources regarding the use of permanent notations on land titles to support a regulatory framework preserving affordability in perpetuity—
- Will the Deputy Premier advise (a) whether mechanisms to preserve ongoing affordability of housing stock through land titling mechanisms is still being actively pursued by the Crisafulli Government, (b) whether the Crisafulli Government intends to apply such mechanisms to government-owned land currently identified for housing and proposed for sale, including sites such as the Visy site and (c) whether such mechanisms will be applied to any Olympic and Paralympic Games village developments?
