

QUESTION ON NOTICE
ASKED
Tuesday, 2 June 2026
Answer Due: Thursday, 2 July 2026

- 602 MR C WHITING ASKED MINISTER FOR HOUSING AND PUBLIC WORKS AND MINISTER FOR YOUTH (HON S O'CONNOR)
- With reference to the Queensland Building and Construction Commission's combustible cladding compliance audit program—
- Will the Minister advise, as at the latest available date (a) how many identified cladding fire risk buildings have been audited by the QBCC, (b) of those audited, how many were found to be compliant and (c) how many required further action due to non-compliance with obligations under the combustible cladding program, including requirements relating to the display of an Affected Private Building Notice?