Commission into Defence Suicide

Thanks for sending through the recap, [REDACTED] it is so good that you were able to outline this to them directly. My experience has been that Ministers get absolutely swamped with paperwork so the opportunity to present new ideas to them in person is so much more powerful.

I've been chasing a response from Marles over recent days to try to have it in time for our meeting on Tuesday. Hopefully we can get a response by then, but I'd rather have the right answer than a quick answer.

It's good that D'Arth is aware of this issue now but she will only be our AG for another 50 odd days. Have you had a chance to brief anyone from the LNP State team? I suspect that Amanda Stoker, our state candidate in Cleveland, may hold a role in the new Government that could influence their approach. I'm wondering if I could tee up a time for you two to connect. It would be good for her to hear about your efforts and
